Revolutionary Justice Movement Press Release

Tsatsu Tsikata and Henchmen must not kill Judges again

31 years ago 3 judges and an army officer were callously killed on the orders of Captain Kojo Tsikata, Tsatsu Tsikata and Joachim Armatay Quaye in June 1982. Prior to that, Tsatsu Tsikata, who was counsel to Ex President Rawlings during the failed May 1979 uprising assisted soldiers led by the late Lt commander Apaloo and shot dead Lt Colonel Enninful ,who was the presiding judge at the trial.

Tsatsu Tsikata has a fabulous record of scaring judges to the point of blackmail and death. Most Ghanaians saw the way he bullied Justice Henrietta Abban and how he tried to circumvent justice after misusing public funds and turning the Ghana National Petroleum Corporation, Ghana's premier state institution into a salt and kako factory.

The three judges , Justice Cecelia Koranteng Addow, Justice Sarkodie and Justice Agyepong who were shot and burnt at the Bundase shooting range under the PNDC of which Tsatsu was the special adviser on legal affairs and internal security died fighting for freedom and upholding the rule of law in Ghana. Their colleagues today have again been saddled with that obligation and their decision is simple: restore ,truth, accountability and social justice or allow Ghana to become a dictatorship where institutions and individuals are more powerful than the state.

Ghana has had a chequered history and the next three years are very critical to the very survival of the nation state. Already the proponents of political patronage, nepotism and tribalism have reared their ugly heads and we can see how tribal hegemony is been fostered onto the country. It is now common for leaders to ask which tribe or clan do you belong rather than what can you do for the country? The nation is really on a slippery slope with chronic unemployment, sanitation, embezzlement and misuse of public funds and poor maintenance of public infrastructure. Our youth are restless and no one knows what they are capable of doing .

Our Supreme Court must remember the painful sacrifice of Sir Arku Korsah when he was sacked by Nkrumah after deciding against him, The sacrifices of the judiciary during the Busia No court No court years, and the criticisms ,harassment and abuse from politicians who expect them to serve their interests.

We call on Ghanaians not to allow Tsatsu Tsikata and his henchmen, some of whom are still alive and are capable of cold blooded murder to intimidate and blackmail the supreme court of eminent judges . We must protect our freedoms and preserve justice for unborn generations.
